When I was a bachelor, I lived by myself,
And all the bread and cheese I had I laid upon a shelf,
The rats and the mice made such a strife,
I was forced to go to London to buy me a wife,

*4501-146

The roads were so bad—the lanes were so narrow,
I was forced to bring her home in a wheel-barrow,
The wheel-barrow broke, my wife had a fall;
Deuce take the wheel-barrow, my wife and all.

Little Boy Blue, come blow me your horn,
The sheep's in the meadow, the cow's in the corn;
Where's the boy that looks after the sheep?
Under the hay-cock fast asleep.

Hark, hark, the dogs do bark,
Beggars are coming to town,
Some in jags some in rags,
And some in velvet gowns.

Faint, illegible text at the top of the page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.

Faint, illegible text at the bottom of the page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.

High diddle diddle, the cat and the fiddle
The cow jump'd over the moon :
The little dog laugh'd to see such sport,
While the dish ran after the spoon.

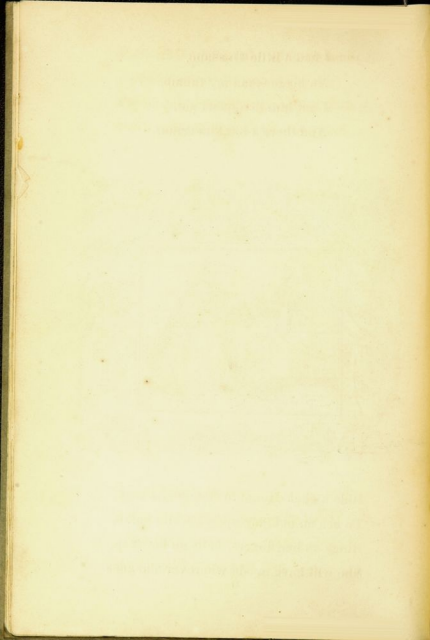

As I was going to sell my eggs,
I met a man with bandy legs,
Bandy legs and crooked toes!
I tripp'd up his heels, and he fell on his nose.

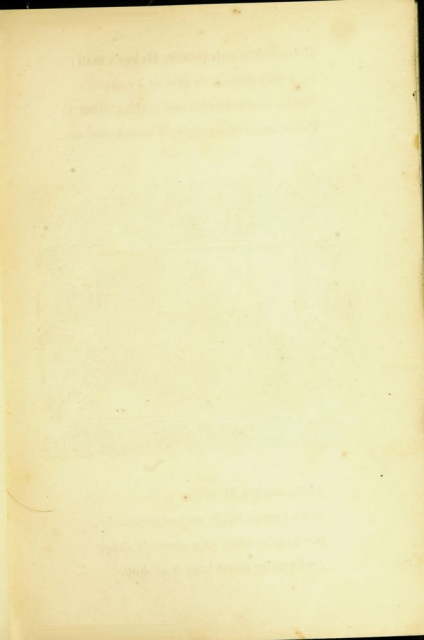

I had a little Husband,
No bigger than my thumb,
I put him in a quart pot,
And there I bid him drum.

Ride a cock-Horse to Bambury cross,
To see an old lady upon a white horse,
Rings on her fingers, bells on her toes,
She will have music wherever she goes.

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake, Baker's man :
So I will master as fast as I can :
Pat it, and prick it, and mark it with T,
Put it into the oven for Tommy and me.

Little Jack a Dandy,
Loved plum cake, and sugar candy.
He bought some at a grocer's shop,
And out he come hop, hop, hop.

See-saw, Sacradown,
Which is the way to London Town?
One foot up, and the other down
And that is the way to London town.

Jack and Jill went up the hill,
To fetch a pail of water;
Jack fell down, and broke his crown,
And Jill came tumbling after.
